

Code of Ethics

Certified lifeguard must comply with Code of Ethics during their certification, as set forth below:

As a certified lifeguard, I will perform my work in a manner:

- 1) Free of bias with regard to religion, ethnicity, gender, age, national origin, and disability.
- 2) Place the safety and welfare of public, workers associated with facility operation above all other considerations.
- 3) Protect nearby general public property and the environment.
- 4) Make my management aware if I have safety concerns relating to the life guarding operations that I am performing or witnessed any violation that might affect the safety of the swimmers.
- 5) Not violating safety-related regulations, warnings, or instructions set forth by DM, recognized safety standards.
- 6) Not misrepresenting or deceiving others concerning my experience or the capabilities of myself or the area I am working in.
- 7) Not misrepresent or misuse my certification card or the organization logo, both of which are the property of the certifying authority; and I understand that I must return the card to the issuing authority immediately if required to do so.
- 8) Not performing additional duties while assigned the duty of swimmer protection
